

Yankee the Fantastic Beet

"Yo ho ho," said Yankee the beet. "I am Yankee. I am one fantastic beet."

"Long ago I was a seed, but soon I was big," he added.

"Then the deer wanted to eat me. They wanted to eat the green that was on me. Well, yesterday they started to eat me. It did not feel real grand," he said.

"I began to get mad so I started to kick and kick. Soon I was free. I was free to go where I wanted. I ran from the deer and hid in the hills. It was sweet to be free," said Yankee the fantastic beet.
