A Fox Stopped By

A fox stopped by to see me one day.

"What do you want to do?" I asked.

"I want to sing you some songs," said the fox.

"That would be great," I said, and he started to sing.

He sang a lot of different songs. He was a great singer.

"Thanks for singing some great songs to me," I said.

Come On and Get In

"Come on and get in," said Jill.

Nell was glad to get in the cool water. It was a hot day.

"Your pool is so neat," said Nell.

"My dad got it for me last week," said Jill.

"It is what we need to stay cool on a hot day," said Jack.

"We can play and stay cool all day long in this pool," said Jill.

I Read to My Dog

I read to my dog.

It is a fun thing to do.

We go to the park with a neat book.

I sit and my dog stays next to me.

I read from my book.

There is a cool story in my book.

Together we have fun hearing the story.

I See One Log and Three Rabbits

I see one log and three rabbits.

One rabbit is by the log.

One rabbit is on the log.

One rabbit is in the log.

Two of the rabbits are small.

One of the rabbits is big.

All three of the rabbits are looking at me.

It Got Cold This Week

It got cold this week. I was so glad.

When it gets cold, we get  snow.

We got a lot of  snow this week.

We did not have school one day because of all of the  snow.

I went and played in the  snow that day.

I built a  snowman. It was fun.

I  love it when it gets cold.

One Day I Went to a Pet Shop

"One day I went to a pet shop," said Jack.

"I got some cat food for my cat and some dog food for my dog."

"I looked at the  birds and the fish in the pet shop."

"I also looked at the rats and the rabbits that were there."

"This pet shop was a neat store to visit," said Jack.

This Is the Sun

"This is the sun," said Jill one day.

"It is my friend," she said.

"It lives up in the sky."

"It can do a lot of things."

"It can keep us from getting cold."

"It can help us to see where we are going."

"I am glad that we have the sun," said Jill.

What am I Going to Do?

"What am I going to do? I do not have a hat," said the man one day.

He went and asked the  birds what to do.

"I can fix that," said one smart  bird, and it made a nest on the man's  head.

"I like it!" said the man. He kept the nest on his  head and lived in the forest.

He did not go  home until the little  birds got big and could fly away.

The Queen

One day Jack was at school on the  playground. He was about to kick a big red ball.

"You there. You there. Will you look at me? Thank you. I am a queen, and just who are you?" asked Queen Jill. Jack looked  down. There was a  mouse, and the  mouse was a real queen. She was looking up at Jack.

"I am Jack, and I go to this school," said Jack.

"Well, I want to go to school," said Queen Jill.

"Can you help me?"

"Yes, I can help you. You can go to school with me," said Jack. "Just jump up into my hand, and we will go into my school."

Queen Jill jumped up into Jack's hand, and they went into the school. Part of the day she and the kids in Jack's  class did math. Part of the day she had the kids read to her. And part of the day Queen Jill told stories about being a  mouse queen. Soon Queen Jill and the kids in Jack's class were all friends.

At the end of the school day, Jack took Queen Jill back to the  playground. It had been a fun day for Jack and for Queen Jill.
